FROM THE POPE

Suggestions for each of us to practice every day.
1. Think about two things. Do I have a sense of history? Do I feel that I belong to a people who have journeyed from afar? Take up the bible, the Book of Deuteronomy, 26 and read it. Here we meet with the memory of the just and how the Lord wants us to be remembered, in other words we remember the road travelled by our people. In my heart what do I want more, do I make others serve me or do I use others, the community, the parish, my family, my friends or do I serve - am I a servant?

WORDS FROM OUR SECONDARY PATRON, ST. JOHN VIANNEY

"You wonder why God, who is goodness itself, allows us to suffer...But, what would you think of a doctor who lost his patient because he was afraid to give him the necessary but unpleasant treatment?"
