Building stronger bones!

Last couple weeks I was talking about the importance of Vit D. Vit D along with calcium and weight bearing exercises help build strong, healthy bones. Many people are unaware that muscle and bone are living tissues, that respond to exercise by becoming stronger. When starting regular exercise at a younger age, most men and women generally achieve greater peak bone mass (maximum bone density and strength). This creates a type of bone bank for your future. For most people, bone mass peaks during our 30's, then we start to lose bone. But not all is lost! All of us can start help strengthen our bones at any age. The idea is to start before you have a condition as, osteopina, osteoporosis or soft bones. If already diagnosed with one of these conditions, then it is crucial to start now! With exercise your body is able to maintain muscle strength, coordination, and balance, which in turn helps to prevent falls and related fractures.

The Best Bone Building Exercise

The best exercises are weight-bearing, that force you to work against gravity. Examples are: weight training, walking, hiking, jogging, climbing stairs, tennis, and dancing. Other exercises as swimming or bicycling have great cardiovascular benefits, build and maintain strong muscles, but unfortunately not bones, as they are non-weight bearing.

Did you know, this Lenten fact?

The fourth Sunday of Lent is sometimes called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Traditionally, Sundays are named after the first word of the liturgy's opening antiphon. On this Sunday, the antiphon is taken from the book of the prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 66:10-11). Even as we observe our Lenten sacrifices, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be ours at Easter.

Antiphon: Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her.
