Electrolytes...

Maintaining fluid balance to avoid dehydration, puffiness and overhydration. As mentioned previously in this series drinking water and adding in some high water content foods that contain important electrolytes within them is a great way (watermelon, cantelope, tomatoes, cucumbers). Sports drinks is another way but is very high in sugar, so as an option add only a 1/4 cup to about 2 cups water. You can also pick up electrolytes packets to add to your water. You will notice many different mixes along with other minerals like magnesium or calcium added, as it all depends what you are looking for and what purpose for ex. muscle cramping, rehydration/hydration, sports performance.... But for the average person you don't need anything too fancy or complicated. A drink you can mix up yourself, is easy, suffice and satisfying.

- 1) 2 cups water, juice a half lemon, 2 tsp honey and 1/8tsp salt
- 2) Blend watermelon chunks (1 cup), 1 cup water, 2 tsp maple syrup and 18/tsp salt.
- 3) Simply drink coconut water, will have all you need

PENTECOST

Today is Pentecost Sunday: Pentecost ("the fiftieth day") is a Christian holiday commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles on the fiftieth day after the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Apostles began to speak in many languages and have received other spiritual gifts. The event was foretold by Jesus before his Ascension.

In Christian tradition Pentecost is a moveable feast observed exactly seven weeks after Easter Day, i.e. 50 days after Easter (inclusive, 49 + Easter). It always falls on the seventh Sunday after Easter Day. In Eastern churches the date of Pentecost is calculated in the same manner but it usually differs due to the use of the Julian calendar instead of the Gregorian. Pentecost is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic Church.

We need Young & Adult volunteers!

If you are interested in helping our kids learn their Catholic faith in a fun and exciting way, please return the completed form to Sacred Heart Cathedral by June 1st, 2018.

Participants wanted! Vacation Bible Sports Camp, Discovery Mission July 9-13

Forms will be in foyer in back of church or obtain through Sacred Heart Sr Analisa 250-372-5470 or online www.sacredheartkamloops.org by June 17!

Saint Bernardine of Siena

In the year 1400, a young man came to the door of the largest hospital in Siena. A plague was raging through the city so horrible that as many as twenty people died each day just in the hospital alone. And many of the people who died were those who were needed to tend the ill. It was a desperate situation, more and more people were falling ill and fewer and fewer people were there to help them.

The twenty-year-old man who stood there had not come because he was ill but because he wanted to help. And he brought not new patients but young men like himself willing to tend the dying. For four months Bernardine and his companions worked day and night not only to comfort the patients but to organize and clean the hospital. Only at the end of the plague did Bernardine himself fall ill of exhaustion.

But that was Bernardine's way, whatever he did, he put his whole self into it. Immediately after he recovered he was back caring for the sick, but this time, he was responsible not for a whole hospital but one person, an invalid aunt. Yet for fourteen months she got his full attention. Throughout his life, he put as much energy into caring for one person as for hundreds, as much commitment into converting one citizen as to preaching to a whole city.
