Reflection question to Parish and

Parishioners: #9. "Which vocations in the Church do we promote and pray for in our parish?"

Light of God Charismatic Prayer Group: Everyone invited to come celebrate Pentecost, the outpouring of the promised Holy Spirit with us. Together we pray and sing to praise and worship our Lord and to ask the Holy Spirit to be with us. We may share words and scripture as the Spirit leads us. We pray for our needs and the needs of the Church, and ask for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit so we may receive his gifts. Join us Thursday evenings at 7 pm at St. John Vianney Church. ### MIKKIE'S CORNER - Health & Nutrition

An Inspirational story...your never to old to start exercising

Madonna Buder, or aka the "Iron Nun" is a Roman Catholic sister, who began her journey into physical fitness and the age of 48. She was told by Fr. John that it was a way of tweaking, "mind, body and spirit" for relaxation and calmness. She has worked hard at also raising money for various charities. She is quoted as saying, "I train religiously" So that was that and at 52 she completed her first triathlon at age 52, and first Ironman event at age 55 and kept going. She has completed over 325 triathlons including 45 Ironman Distances. In fact, the Ironman organization has had to add new age brackets as the sister gets older as she wanted to open up an 80+ age category and be the oldest person, male or female, to finish an Ironman triathlon and thus became the overall Ironman world record holder in age at age 82 by In 2014, Buder was inducted into the USA Triathlon Hall of Fame.

Mikkie Nettles, CHN/PT (Certified Holistic Nutritionist/Personal Trainer)

Trinity Sunday

Officially called "The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity," is one of the few celebrations of the Christian Year that commemorates a reality and doctrine rather than a person or event. Christians remember and honour the eternal God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is one of the most fascinating - and controversial - Christian teachings. The Trinity is described as a "mystery." By mystery the Church does not mean a riddle, but rather the Trinity is a reality above our human comprehension that we may begin to grasp, but ultimately must know through worship, symbol, and faith. It has been said that mystery is not a wall to run up against, but an ocean in which to swim. The Trinity is best described in the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed, or Nicene Creed.

Christians believe that the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are somehow distinct from one another, but not divided, yet completely united in will and essence. Ex. think of the sight of two eyes, the eyes are distinct, yet one and undivided in their sight, or think of a musical chord, like the C-chord; C, E, and G notes are all distinct notes, but joined together as one chord. The sound is richer and more dynamic than if the notes are played individually. The chords are all equally important in producing the rich sound, and the sound is lacking and thin if one of the notes is left out.

The Son is said to be eternally begotten of the Father, while the Holy Spirit is said to proceed from the Father through the Son. For instance, God the Father created the world through the Son and the Holy Spirit hovered over the waters at creation.

As St. Athanasius was fond of saying "that which has not been assumed has not been redeemed," meaning that unless God truly became completely human, we could not be fully redeemed, because only God Himself is capable of truly redeeming humanity; an angel does not have this ability. Thus, the Trinity is about the heart of our salvation.
