CORONAVIRUS UPDATES FROM BISHOP JOSEPH NGUYEN

In regards to the coronavirus, or Covid-19, and the always changing updates - We ask that you check your emails or the Diocesan website, www.rcdk.org, frequently for current updates from Bishop Joseph Nguyen. We will try our best to get updates out in a timely manner. Please communicate this message as best as you can through your parish channels such as your website, email lists and phone calls to those who do not have access to the internet and social media. Please continue to pray for an end to the spread of the virus and healing for all those affected by it. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time of crisis.

After consulting with the BC bishops and priests in our diocese, we will gradually reopen our churches to celebrate together the Sacred Liturgy, beginning this coming solemnity of Pentecost on the weekend of May 31, 2020.

As we prepare to re-open our churches for Mass with the congregation, in a limited way since the COVID-19 pandemic still poses a serious threat to physical health, these considerations remain essential:

- Social and physical distancing and sanitizing;
- Organizing communities for Mass, since the limit of 50 persons, which includes clergy, is still in force; and,
- Demonstrating patience and kindness towards one another as we live out God's commandment of love.

Each pastor and parish must take responsibility for following the established Guidelines for Re-opening of Masses with a Congregation and Provincial Health Authorities mandates, to make the appropriate adaptations for their individual communities depending on their size, space and resources.

We ask for your patience, understanding and willingness to work closely with your pastor as we navigate our way through the implementation and process of putting these in place.

Please contact your local parish or check your parish website for information on signing up for a specific Saturday anticipated Mass or Sunday Mass to attend since the limit of 50 people, including the clergy, is still in force.

PLEASE NOTE

All those who have registered for Sunday mass, if unable to attend, inform the office through email or phone call, so that others can get the place as well. Thank you for your co-operation. God Bless and stay safe.

SCAM EMAIL - Please be advised that there is another round of scam emails being circulated using the priests names.

These emails ask for a favor and to contact them. If you receive such an email please disregard and report it to the office. Thank you.
